

Role Model Session of “Ms. Salina Gayali”

DATE: 29/10/2025

Highlights of the Program:

- Zonal Change Leader introduced Ms. Salina Gayali, Electrician trade (2020-22) and provided a brief overview of their background and expertise. She is currently working as a Packaging Unit Operator at Freudenberg Chennai.
- The meeting commenced by Principal (IC) with a brief introduction to the purpose of the session, emphasizing the significance of having role models in personal and professional development.
- Ms. Salina Gayali shared insights into her personal, elaborating on why she had chosen ITI and how ITI influenced her life.
- There was an interactive discussion on the qualities that define a role model. Key attributes highlighted included integrity, resilience, empathy, leadership, and innovation.
- Principal (IC) and Trade Trainer felicitated to Ms. Salina Gayali.
- Trainees shared anecdotes and experiences that exemplified these qualities in their own role models.

Glimpses of Activity:

