

World quality day- Using quality circles controlling and managing waste

DATE: 07/11/2025

Highlights of the Program:

- The meeting commenced by Zonal Change Leader with an introduction to World Quality Day and its significance in promoting awareness about quality practices worldwide.
- The purpose of the session to observe World Quality Day and promote awareness among trainees and trainers about the importance of quality, continuous improvement, and excellence in technical education and workplace practices.
- Mr Papu Bisoi, ATO and Mr. Bhagirathi Barik, ATO spoke on the importance of maintaining global standards of quality for sustainable growth and employability.
- A presentation on “Using quality circles controlling and managing waste” was shown to trainees.
- Trainees actively participated and showcasing their models focusing on quality awareness.
- Trainers discussed strategies to maintain quality in teaching, assessment, and workshop practices.
- The session concluded with a vote of thanks by Er. Ashok Patra, ATO appreciating everyone’s participation and commitment to quality.

Glimpses of Activity:

